NEWS OF OREGON AND THE NORTHWEST.

LOST LAKE TO HAVE ROAD.

Much-Admired Sheet of Water May Become Famous as Summer Resort.

HOOD RIVER, August 10.—Lost Lake, made famous by Gifford's photograph of it, in which Mount Hood is reflected, will soon be no longer lost. Workmen commenced yesterday to construct a wagon road to it from the main road, and soon it will be possible to go to that much admired sheet of water without having to go on foot through many miles of forest. The road will be the most scenic one in the valley, winding up through the mountains and reaching an elevation at its highest point of 4000 feet. For a number of years Lost Lake has shared an equal interest with Mount Hood in the mind of the tourist, but few have gone there owing to its inaccessibility. It could not be reached in any way except through the almost trackless timber, and for this reason no accommodation for visitors has ever been made on its shores.

With the building of the wagon road it is thought that a hotel will be built there and that it will become one of Oregon's most popular recreation spots. Money for its construction has been raised by voluntary subscriptions, and its grades, it is said, will be easy to ascend. It is expected the road will be open for use by September 1.

FIFTY DAYS IN JAIL.

THE DALLES, Ore., August 10.—Jas. Miller, who was arrested in Sherman county by Sheriff Chrisman Tuesday morning, was tried in the Justice Court. He pleaded guilty to the charge of larceny preferred against him by E. H. Sterling and was given 50 days in the Wasco county jail.

HORSE BURNED TO DEATH.

COVE, Ore., August 10.—Fire which destroyed a big barn on the McConnell ranch burned a fine saddle horse to death and consumed two mowing machines and 40 tons of hay.

The conflagration was started by one of the little boys of Jesse Spencer, lessee of the place. The child is said to have been playing with matches. There was no insurance on the property and the loss is heavy.

DOG MAKES HEROIC SWIM.

HOOD RIVER, Ore., August 10.—Dogs have been known to go to almost any length to return to former masters, but one which swam the Columbia river opposite Mosier a few days ago to return to its home there is thought to be without a precedent. The dog in question is a highly-bred and intelligent Scotch collie and was formerly the property of a despondent sheepherder who poisoned himself.

The dog refused to quit the side of his master as long as he lived, and even after he was dead remained on the spot where he had last seen him for many days. Finally Marshal Wood, who has a place at Mosier, adopted him. After he became deputy sheriff, Wood could not look after the animal properly and gave him to a butcher, who lived on the north bank of the Columbia river. A few days ago he swam the river above Mosier and returned home. The river at that point is about two miles wide and the feat is considered a remarkable one.

VOLCANIC ACTIVITY IS FOUND BY MAZAMAS

BELLINGHAM, Wash., August 10.—On the northwest slope of Mount Baker some remarkable exhibitions of volcanic activity were seen by the Mazamas who reached the top. Steam issued with a roaring sound from wide crevasses and pools of boiling water in the cracks of the rocks were seen. The discovery is said to have been entirely new, and Professor Landes, of the State University, pronounces the discovery phenomenal. Because of the immense heat the rocks in the vicinity are bare of snow and a fine sample from a pool of pure sulphur, which is constantly being deposited on the rocks, was secured by Landes, John Lee and L. Glisan, of Portland, and W. H. Gleason of Boston, made an effort to reach the summit from the southern side. They left the permanent camp Wednesday and are due to arrive back this afternoon.

EXPLOSION KILLS HIM.

SALT LAKE, August 10.—A special from Eureka to the Desert Evening News says that John Sullivan committed suicide there today by touching off a stick of giant powder and standing over it until the explosion occurred. Both legs were blown off. He died two hours later, expressing regrets that he had not made a quicker job of it. He expressed no reason for the act.

MAY GO TO ANNAPOLIS.

SEATTLE, August 10.—Rear Admiral W. T. Swinburne, recently advanced to the rank, this morning relieved Rear Admiral C. F. Goodrich of the Pacific station, has been ordered home. It is unofficially announced that the latter will succeed Admiral Sands upon his retirement shortly from the superintendency of the Naval Academy at Annapolis. The transfer of authority was made aboard the cruiser Chicago, from which Admiral Swinburne will take his flag to the Charleston as soon as that vessel can join the squadron after the disembarking of Secretary of State Root at Panama.

HOP SALES 17 CENTS.

SALEM, August 10.—Sales of 1906 hops aggregating 300 bales are reported to have been made in this county yesterday afternoon and this morning by Louis Laehmund & Co., all for 17 cents. These sales so far as is known are the only bona fide 17-cent deals to have been made. Among the lots purchased is that of Jackson & Naylor, of Marquam, 16,000 pounds.

CELEBRATES 86TH ANNIVERSARY.

OSWEGO, Ore., August 10.—Last Wednesday Oscar Eaton celebrated his 86th birthday at his home in Oswego. Oregon has but few men more honored than Mr. Eaton. For several years he has been chaplain of the State Grange. He belongs to a family of patriots, who from Bunker Hill down to Appomattox have notably done their part in upholding the honor and integrity of their country.

TILLAMOOK, Ore., August 10.—There were only nine persons who put in an appearance at the examination for teachers' certificates Wednesday—Misses Eacil Oliver, Clara Eichinger, Elsie Scovell, Grace Whitehouse, Esther Mimsen, Emma Swenson, Mary White and Ella Hays and Edgar Munson.

UNKNOWN MAN KILLED.

THE DALLES, Ore., August 10.—The body of a dead man was found on the O. R. & N. Company's tracks a mile east of Hood River just before noon today. It is supposed that he was run over by the east-bound train, which is due in this city at 12:20 p. m. The name of the man could not be ascertained or any further particulars.

TWO MEN MEET WITH ACCIDENTS.

OSWEGO, Ore., August 10.—Mr. Waldorf met with a very painful accident Wednesday. While riding on his bicycle down a steep grade near his home in South Oswego he lost control of his wheel and fell to the ground, breaking his collarbone.

One of the bridge carpenters working on the Spring Brook trestle on the Southern Pacific Railroad about a mile south of Oswego, was seriously injured yesterday by falling from the trestle. The injured man is from Lafayette, Ore. He was taken to hospital in Portland.

NEGRO CALLS JUDGE DOWN.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., August 10.—Earle Fletcher, colored, who was hanged here today for the murder of Bob Payne, a fellow convict at Flat Top mines, created a scene by denouncing Criminal Judge S. L. Weaver from the scaffold. He declared that the Judge had granted a habeas corpus to John Williams, a white man from another county, and saved his neck the day before he was to hang, but when it came to his own case, a citizen of this county, the court went fishing. Fletcher said that "going fishing" was given as an excuse for the judge to leave town to avoid granting him a habeas corpus.

When traveling you may happen to encounter those pests of the night—bedbugs. If you have reason to suspect their presence, spread newspapers, overlapping one another, under the lower sheet, and go to sleep unafraid.

Sweet alyssum sown in a pot in the late summer will bloom in the house all winter.

APPEARANCES

Often a person is sized up by his appearance; by the tone that surrounds him. And more often a business house is sized up by the stationary it uses. A cheap letter head or a poor bill head gives a mighty poor first impression and makes business harder to transact. Good printing costs no more than poor printing. The first impression is half the battle in business. You wouldn't employ a "sloppy" salesman; why put up with "sloppy" stationery, that gives a wrong impression of the importance of your business. Let us do your printing and help you to make that ten strike.
